

Haryana Chief Minister Honored with Covid-19 Commitment Award | Haryana | 17 Mar 2022

Why in News

- On March 16, 2022, Haryana Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar was honored with the COVID-19 Commitment Award by Asia One Magazine. The award was given by the team of Asia One Magazine at the Chief Minister's residence in Chandigarh.

Key Points

- This honor was given to Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar for his contribution to the revival of the state's economy and the collective welfare of the society despite the challenging environment of the Corona epidemic.
- The Chief Minister said that it is the honor of all those Corona Warriors of Haryana who, without caring about their lives, served the patients day and night and made people aware of the pandemic.
- Despite the lockdown, people went door-to-door to deliver daily necessities and medicines. People arranged accommodation and food for the needy trapped away from home.
- The Chief Minister said that due to the Corona Warriors, the state was successful in getting control of the Covid-19 epidemic.

PDF Refernece URL: <https://www.drishtiias.com/statepcs/19-03-2022/haryana/print>