

Women SHGs outlet inaugurated at Raja Bhoj Airport

Why In News?

On April 17, 2022, Union Aviation Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia launched the allotted outlet at the airport to promote women self-help groups at Raja Bhoj Airport, Bhopal.

Key Points

- This women self-help group outlet has been launched under the Opportunity Program of the Government of India.
- It is noteworthy that this scheme has been started to make local products available for sale at all airports and to provide new employment opportunities to the local people.
- Its purpose is to encourage the talents of women and craftsmen as well as provide them suitable opportunities.
- Under this scheme, space is being allotted to self-help groups one by one for a period of 15 days in a designated area of 100-200 square feet in Airports operated by Airports Authority of India (AAI).

PDF Reference URL: <https://www.drishtiias.com/printpdf/women-shg-outlet-inaugurated-at-raja-bhoj-airport>