

SC Deploys SUVAS for Regional Language Accessibility

Recently, the Indian Law Minister stated that the Supreme Court \(SC\) has introduced SUVAS, an AI-driven translation tool, to facilitate regional language usage in legal proceedings.

- This specialized tool, developed with support from the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, currently translates English judicial documents into eleven Indian languages.
- Additionally, the Chief Justice of India noted that the landmark Kesavananda Bharati verdict is accessible in 10 Indian languages on the SC website, marking 50 years since the ruling.
  - The Constitutional Bench in the Kesavananda Bharati case ruled by a 7-6 verdict that Parliament could amend any part of the Constitution so long as it did not alter or amend the basic structure or essential features of the Constitution.
