

World Typing Day

8th January is observed as World Typing Day to encourage people to express themselves via written communication.

- Celebration of the day started in Malaysia in 2011. It commemorates the 2011 Malaysian Speed Typing Contest, which broke records for the fastest typist and largest participation.
- The day holds special significance as it celebrates the ability to type and communicate with one another.

The Vision

PDF Refernece URL: https://www.drishtiias.com/printpdf/world-typing-day

