

Black Sea

Why in News

Recently, the US Defence Secretary has urged more defence cooperation among friendly Black Sea countries amid Russia “militarisation” of the region.

- This came ahead of a NATO Ministers summit.

Key Points

- Geographical Location of Black Sea:
  - The Black Sea is located between Eastern Europe and Western Asia.
  - It is surrounded by the Pontic, Caucasus, and Crimean Mountains in the south, east and north respectively.
  - The Black Sea is also connected to the Sea of Azov by the Strait of Kerch.
  - The Turkish straits system - the Dardanelles, Bosporus and Marmara Sea - forms a transitional zone between the Mediterranean and the Black Sea.
  - The bordering countries of Black Sea are: Russia, Ukraine, Georgia, Turkey, Bulgaria and Romania.
  - There is a significant absence of oxygen in the water (anoxic waters).
- Russian Interest in Black Sea:

- The unique geography of the Black Sea region confers several geopolitical advantages to Russia.

- Firstly, it is an important crossroads and strategic intersection for the entire region.

- Access to the Black Sea is vital for all littoral and neighboring states, and greatly enhances the projection of power into several adjacent regions.

- Secondly, the region is an important transit corridor for goods and energy.

- Thirdly, the Black Sea region is rich in cultural and ethnic diversity, and due to geographical proximity, shares close historical ties with Russia.

- Russia invaded Ukraine in 2014 and carved off the strategically vital peninsula of Crimea, the largest land grab from a sovereign state in this century.

- Most countries do not recognise the takeover and stand behind Ukraine's claims to the waters.

- In November 2020, India voted against a Ukraine-sponsored resolution in the UN that condemned alleged human rights violations in Crimea thereby backing old ally Russia on the issue.

- US Interest in Black Sea:

- The Black Sea is bordered by Bulgaria, Georgia, Romania, Russia, Turkey and Ukraine. All these countries are NATO countries.

- Due to this faceoff between NATO countries and Russia, the Black sea is a region of strategic importance & a potential maritime flashpoint.

- NATO members Turkey, Greece, Romania and Bulgaria are in the Black Sea, but warships from the US, UK and other NATO allies also have made increasingly frequent visits in a show of support to Ukraine.

- Russia has frequently responded to NATO warships visits near Crimea, casting them as destabilizing.
