

Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Grameen Kaushalya Yojana

Why in News

Recently, alumni meets were organized across the country under Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Kaushalya Yojana (DDU-GKY) to commemorate 75 years of Independence.

Key Points

About:

- The Ministry of Rural Development (MoRD) announced it on Antyodaya Diwas in 2014.
- It is a demand-driven placement linked skill training initiative working under the National Rural Livelihood Mission (NRLM).
- It uses skill training and placement in wage employment as a tool to diversify income and enable sustained upward movement out of poverty.

Beneficiaries:

 DDU-GKY is uniquely focused on rural youth between the ages of 15 and 35 years from poor families.

Objective:

- Adding diversity to the incomes of rural poor families
- Cater to the career aspirations of rural youth.

Alumni Meet:

- · Alumni meet is an important component of the scheme.
- The Alumni meets provide healthy ground for experience sharing by the former trainees with their present counterparts on topics like placements, career goals, challenges they faced in finding employment before undertaking the training and the benefits they reaped after.
- Some of the former trainees are also felicitated at the events for their exemplary performances at their workplaces.

Coverage:

 The program is currently being implemented in 27 States and 3 Union Territories and has over 2198 Training Centres in 1822 projects, in partnership with 839 Project Implementing Agencies conducting training across 56 sectors, and over 600 jobroles.

Achievements:

Since inception of the scheme, a total 10.81 lakh candidates have been trained in 56 sectors and 600 Trades and 6.92 lakh placed.

Significance:

 DDU-GKY and integrated farming initiatives for rural development across the country are important for greater success in skilling and placing the rural youth.
