

Navy to Have Mixed Marching Contingent at Republic Day Parade

The Indian Navy is set to make history at the Republic Day Parade, showcasing a groundbreaking mixed-gender marching contingent of 144 men and women Agniveers.

- This year's parade marks the debut of a triservice women marching contingent and features the first-ever appointment of a woman officer as a Commanding Officer of a warship.
- The Navy's tableau highlights two key themes - 'Nari Shakti' and indigenisation, spotlighting the achievements of Bharat in naval capabilities.

Read more: Equal Benefits for Women in Armed Forces

PDF Reference URL: <https://www.drishtiias.com/printpdf/navy-to-have-mixed-marching-contingent-at-republic-day-parade>

