National Commission for Women (NCW)

- The NCW is the statutory body of the Government of India, generally concerned with advising the government on all policy matters affecting women.
- It was established in January 1992 under the provisions of the Indian Constitution, as defined in the National Commission for Women Act, 1990.
- The objective of the NCW is to represent the rights of women in India and to provide a voice for their issues and concerns.
- The subjects of their campaigns have included dowry, politics, religion, equal representation for women in jobs, and the exploitation of women for labour.
- The NCW also receives and investigates complaints from women who are victims of violence, discrimination, harassment, or deprivation of their rights.
