

Rajasthani Migrants living in Delhi got the gift of Important Yojana

Why in News?

On 10 May 2023, Shubhra Singh, Chief Resident Commissioner & Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Rajasthan and Dheeraj Srivastava, Resident Commissioner & Commissioner of Rajasthan Foundation, inaugurated 'Mukhyamantri Nishulk Dava Yojana' & 'E-Mitra' Yojana at Bikaner House premises in Delhi to provide benefits of the public welfare schemes of the state government to the Rajasthani migrants living in Delhi.

Key Points:

- People will get 300 medicines free of cost under the 'Mukhyamantri Nishulk Dava Yojana'.
- Apart from this, about 500 special services will be provided by the E-Mitra centre opened in Bikaner House, mainly including Janadhar, Enrollment, Chiranjeevi Enrollment, Pension Verification, Scholarship Yojana, Mobile Recharge, Bus-Rail Tickets, Birth-Death Proof etc.
- It is worth mentioning that the people living in the state, as well as the Rajasthani migrants living outside the state, should get the benefit of Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot's positive thinking and priority on education & health. With this resolve, these facility centres have been started.
- Along with the inauguration of E-Mitra and Mukhyamantri Nishulk Dava Yojana centres in Bikaner House premises, a press room was inaugurated for the journalists to sit. Along with seating facilities for journalists, computers and other facilities have also been started in this room, so that media persons can complete their daily work related to news.
