

Reward & Recognition

In the Nagpur District of Maharashtra, you've been working as the District Magistrate for the last 5 years. With successful implementation of Covid Lockdown precautions and timely vaccine dosage coverage, your district has been awarded with the "Best Administration Award".

Now, the Member of Parliament from your district has organised a facilitation ceremony for your office and has asked you to deliver a keynote speech mentioning how he and his political party helped the office to achieve the targets and has also asked you to mention some names of prominent political leaders in the speech, in order to get the desired publicity from the ceremony. In exchange, you've been promised a posting as the Joint Secretary at the Ministry of Finance.

How would you react to the offer being made to you and what would be your immediate course of action?
