

CBI Need Written Consent to Investigate in Madhya Pradesh | Madhya Pradesh | 20 Jul 2024

Why in News?

According to the Madhya Pradesh government, the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) will need a written permission to initiate inquiries against its "public servants".

Key Points

- No permission will be required to probe central government officials or private individuals.
- This provision has been released after the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhitha (new criminal laws) came into effect for smooth functioning.
 - States such as West Bengal, Tamil Nadu, Punjab, Telangana and Kerala have withdrawn their general consent for CBI investigations.

Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI)

- The CBI was established by a resolution of the Ministry of Home Affairs and later transferred to the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions, currently functioning as an attached office.
- Its establishment was recommended by the Santhanam Committee on Prevention of Corruption.
- The CBI operates under the Delhi Special Police Establishment (DSPE) Act, 1946. It is neither a constitutional nor a statutory body.
- It investigates cases related to bribery, governmental corruption, breaches of central laws, multi-state organized crime, and multi-agency or international cases.

II

BHARATIYA NYAYA SANHITA (BNS), 2023

BNS 2023 replaced Indian Penal Code 1860, incorporating 358 sections (511 in IPC), maintaining most of the IPC provisions, introducing new offences, eliminating court- struck-down offences, and enhancing penalties for various offences.

New Offences

- Promise to Marry: Criminalising "deceitful"
- Mob Lynching: Codify offences linked to mob lynching and hate-crime murders
- Ordinary criminal law now covers Organized Crime and Terrorism, including a broader scope for terror financing in BNS compared to UAPA
- Attempt to Suicide: Criminalises attempts to commit suicide with intent to compel or restrain any public servant from discharging official duty
- Community Service: Added as possible form of punishment

Deletions

- Unnatural Sexual Offences: Section 377 of the IPC, which criminalised homosexuality among other "unnatural" sexual activities repealed completely
- Adultery: Offence of adultery omitted in consonance of apex court judgement
- Thugs: Section 310 of IPC fully omitted
- Gender Neutrality: Some laws dealing with children modified to bring gender neutrality

Other Modifications

- Fake News: Criminalisation of publishing false and misleading information
- Sedition: Introduced under a new name 'deshdroh' with wider definition
- Mandatory Minimum Sentence: In several provisions, mandatory minimum sentences prescribed which may limit scope for judicial discretion
- Damage to Public Property: Carry a graded fine (i.e. fine corresponding to the amount of damage caused)
- Death by Negligence: Elevates punishment for causing death by negligence from two to five years (for doctors - 2 yrs imprisonment)

Key Issues

- Criminal Responsibility Age Discrepancy: Criminal responsibility starts at seven, extendable to 12 based on maturity, potentially conflicting with global recommendations
- Inconsistencies in Child Offense Definitions: It sets child age below 18, but age criteria for offenses like rape differ, causing inconsistency
- Retention of IPC Provisions on Rape and Sexual Harassment: Maintains IPC provisions on rape and sexual harassment, omitting Justice Verma
 Committee's 2013 suggestions for gender-neutral rape and recognizing marital rape as an offense.
