

Rajasthan Tableau for R-Day Parade

Why in News?

Rajasthan's tableau in the Republic Day parade on 26th January 2024, depicted the desert state's mesmerising cultural traditions, striking handicrafts and world-famous tourism destinations.

Key Points

- With the theme "Viksit Bharat Mein - Padharo Mhare Desh - Rajasthan", the tableau sought to promote the state's tourism potential.
- The tableau was a demonstration of the development of women's handicraft industries, nurtured along with the festive culture of Rajasthan, giving a beautiful glimpse of the cultural and architectural legacy.
- A beautiful statue of Meera Bai, a symbol of devotion and power, was displayed in the rear end of the tableau.
- The rich handicraft traditions of the state, including bandhej, bagru print and applique work, skilfully crafted by women, depicted the entrepreneurship of the "Women of Rajasthan".
- The tableau had models of two camels adorned with Gorband, depicting the legacy of the Camel Utsav held every year in Rajasthan.
 - The United Nations has also declared the year 2024 as the International Year of Camelids.

Meera Bai

- She was a prominent saint, poetess, and devotee of Lord Krishna in the Bhakti movement of India.
- She became a prominent figure in the Bhakti movement, a spiritual and devotional movement that emphasized a personal connection with the divine and advocated love and devotion as a means of attaining salvation.

//

International Year of Camelids 2024

- The UN has designated 2024 as the International Year of Camelids.
- The Year is meant to raise the public's and policymakers' awareness of the significant role of camelids in protecting ecosystems, conserving biodiversity, assuring food security and adapting to climate change.

PDF Refernece URL: <https://www.drishtias.com/printpdf/rajasthan-tableau-for-r-day-parade>