

Delhi HC Questions Missing Provisions for Unnatural Sex in BNS 2023

Source: TH

The Delhi High Court has raised concerns over the exclusion of penal provisions for unnatural sex and sodomy from the newly enacted Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023, replacing the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860.

- The court questioned the absence of provisions equivalent to Section 377 of the IPC in theBNS, which previously criminalized non-consensual unnatural sex.
 - In India, "unnatural sex" refers to sexual activities considered against the order of nature. Section 377 of the IPC defines "unnatural offenses" as voluntary carnal intercourse against the order of nature with any man, woman, or animal.
- The exclusion has raised concerns about the protection of the LGBTQ community, male victims of sexual assault and other vulnerable groups.
 - The Central government acknowledged the issue but emphasised that courts cannot direct the legislature to enact specific provisions in law.
- In 2018, the Supreme Court decriminalised homosexuality by striking off parts of Section377 of the IPC which were held violative of Fundamental Rights of LGBTQ Community.
- BNS came into effect on 1st July 2024, replacing the IPC but has been criticized for leaving a critical void in legal protection against non-consensual sexual acts.

BHARATIYA NYAYA SANHITA (BNS), 2023

BNS 2023 replaced Indian Penal Code 1860, incorporating 358 sections (511 in IPC), maintaining most of the IPC provisions, introducing new offences, eliminating court- struck-down offences, and enhancing penalties for various offences.

New Offences

- Promise to Marry: Criminalising "deceitful" promises to marry
- Mob Lynching: Codify offences linked to mob lynching and hate-crime murders
- Ordinary criminal law now covers Organized Crime and Terrorism, including a broader scope for terror financing in BNS compared to UAPA
- Attempt to Suicide: Criminalises attempts to commit suicide with intent to compel or restrain any public servant from discharging official duty
- Community Service: Added as possible form of punishment

Deletions

- Unnatural Sexual Offences: Section 377 of the IPC, which criminalised homosexuality among other "unnatural" sexual activities repealed completely
- Adultery: Offence of adultery omitted in consonance of apex court judgement
- Thugs: Section 310 of IPC fully omitted
- Gender Neutrality: Some laws dealing with children modified to bring gender neutrality

Other Modifications

- Fake News: Criminalisation of publishing false and misleading information
- Sedition: Introduced under a new name 'deshdroh' with wider definition
- Mandatory Minimum Sentence: In several provisions, mandatory minimum sentences prescribed which may limit scope for judicial discretion
- Damage to Public Property: Carry a graded fine (i.e. fine corresponding to the amount of damage caused)
- Death by Negligence: Elevates punishment for causing death by negligence from two to five years (for doctors - 2 yrs imprisonment)

Key Issues

- Criminal Responsibility Age Discrepancy: Criminal responsibility starts at seven, extendable to 12 based on maturity, potentially conflicting with global recommendations
- Inconsistencies in Child Offense Definitions: It sets child age below 18, but age criteria for offenses like rape differ, causing inconsistency
- Retention of IPC Provisions on Rape and Sexual Harassment: Maintains IPC provisions on rape and sexual harassment, omitting Justice Verma Committee's 2013 suggestions for gender-neutral rape and recognizing marital rape as an offense.
