

Kashmir on the Verge of a New Era: GOC 15 Corps

Why in News?

Recently, Lt Gen Rajiv Ghai, General Officer Commanding \(GOC\) 15 Corps, reflects on the evolving security situation and development in Kashmir, outlining challenges and future prospects.

Key Points

- GOC (General Officer Commanding) 15 Corps:
  - The GOC 15 Corps is the commanding officer of the Indian Army's Chinar Corps, responsible for overseeing military operations in the Kashmir Valley and parts of Jammu and Kashmir.
  - The Corps plays a crucial role in counter-insurgency, border security, and maintaining peace in the region.
- Recent Developments in Kashmir:
  - Kashmir is at the cusp of a "new beginning," with significant development and a stable security situation over the past year and a half.
  - Security forces, including Chinar Corps, J&K Police, and CAPFs, have worked together to maintain peace and stability.
  - No new militant recruitment in the last 18 months; active militant numbers have decreased to approximately 80.
  - The success of a robust counter-insurgency campaign has reduced terrorism-related incidents significantly.
  - Modern technology, including AIOS (Automated Integrated Operating Systems), has been employed to prevent cross-border infiltration.
- Challenges:
  - Maintaining the current peaceful and stable situation remains the biggest challenge for security forces.
  - The security grid, including counter-infiltration and counter-terrorism measures, must be sustained to consolidate peace in the coming years.
- Way Forward:
  - Strengthening Intelligence and Surveillance: Enhancing real-time intelligence sharing and deploying advanced surveillance technologies will help security forces anticipate and prevent potential threats, reducing the risk of infiltration and terrorism.
  - Community Engagement and Capacity Building: Building trust with local communities through development initiatives, social outreach, and improved governance can foster cooperation, making counter-terrorism efforts more effective while ensuring long-term stability in the region.
