

Omar Abdullah to Take Oath as J&K CM

Why in News?

Recently, elections were concluded in the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir, and a new Chief Minister is to be appointed along with the revocation of President's Rule.

Key Points

President's Rule Revoked:

- Following the election results, President's Rule was revoked in J&K.
- The revocation process involves the President issuing a proclamation based on a report from the Governor or Lieutenant Governor (LG), citing that conditions for forming a government are favorable after elections.
- President's Rule:
  - Article 356 of the Indian Constitution allows the President to impose direct governance (President's Rule) in a state when the state government is unable to function as per constitutional provisions.
- Governor's Role (Now LG):
  - Under Article 164, the LG (previously Governor) plays a key role in inviting the leader of the majority party or coalition to form the government.
  - The LG ensures the formation of a government that enjoys majority support in the legislature.
- Oath of Office:
  - As per Article 164(3), the CM and other ministers are administered the oath of office by the Governor (or LG in Union Territories).
  - The oath signifies allegiance to the Constitution and the discharge of duties in accordance with the law.
- Legislative Assembly's Role:
  - The newly formed Legislative Assembly in J&K, reinstated post-elections, will have the authority to enact laws, approve budgets, and represent the people of the Union Territory.
  - The CM will head the executive arm of the government, accountable to the Legislative Assembly.
