 - 1984-85: India was a leading voice in UNSC for resolution of conflicts in the Middle East, especially Palestine and Lebanon.
 - 1991-92: Participated in the first ever summit-level meeting of the UNSC and spoke on its role in maintenance of peace and security.
 - 2011-2012: India was a strong voice for developing world, peacekeeping, counterterrorism and Africa. First statement on Syria was during India's Presidency at the UNSC.
 - During the 2011-12 term, India chaired the UNSC 1373 Committee concerning Counter-Terrorism, the 1566 Working Group concerning threat to international peace and security by terrorist acts, and Security Council 751/1907 Committee concerning Somalia and Eritrea.
 - Earlier in 1996, India took the initiative to pilot a draft Comprehensive
 Convention on International Terrorism (CCIT) with the objective of providing a comprehensive legal framework to combat terrorism.
 - India worked closely with its partners in the UNSC to ensure the listing of Pakistanbased terrorist Masood Azhar under the UNSC's 1267 Sanctions Committee (May 2019) concerning al-Qaeda and ISIS and associated individuals and entities, which was pending since 2009.
- Challenges at UNSC:
 - China Challenge:
 - India is entering the UNSC at a time when Beijing is asserting itself at the global stage much more vigorously than ever. It heads at least six UN organisations and has challenged the global rules.
 - China's aggressive behaviour in the Indo-Pacific as well as the India-China border has been visible in all of 2020.
 - China has tried to raise the issue of Kashmir at the UNSC.
 - Post Covid World Order:

- As the global economy is in shambles with various countries facing recession and health emergencies. To handle all these situations need careful strategy to move the world out of this burdening challenge.
- Balancing USA and Russia and Unstable West Asia:
 - With the situation deteriorating between USA and Russia and increasing tensions between USA and Iran, it will be tough situation to handle for India. India needs to uphold rule based world order with due respect to human rights ensuring the national interest.

United Nation Security Council

- The United Nations Charter established six main organs of the United Nations, including the United Nations Security Council (UNSC). Article 23 of the UN Charter concerns the composition of the UNSC.
- The UNSC has been given primary responsibility for maintaining international peace and security to the Security Council, which may meet whenever peace is threatened.
- While other organs of the United Nations make recommendations to member states, only the Security Council has the power to make decisions that member states are then obligated to implement under the Charter.
- Permanent and Non-Permanent Members: The UNSC is composed of 15 members, 5 permanent and 10 non-permanent.
 - Five permanent members: China, France, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom, and the United States.
 - Ten non-permanent members: Elected for two-year terms by the General Assembly.
 - Each year, the General Assembly elects five non-permanent members (out of ten in total) for a two-year term. The ten non-permanent seats are distributed on a regional basis.
 - As stipulated in rule 144 of the rules of procedure, a retiring member is not eligible for immediate re-election.
 - In accordance with rule 92 of the rules of procedure, the election is held by secret ballot and there are no nominations. Under rule 83 of the rules of procedure, the non-permanent members of the Security Council are elected by a two-thirds majority.
 - Five for African and Asian countries.
 - One for Eastern European countries.
 - Two for Latin American and Caribbean countries.
 - Two for Western European and other countries.
- India has been advocating a permanent seat in UNSC.
- India has the following objective criteria, such as population, territorial size, Gross Domestic Product, economic potential, civilisational legacy, cultural diversity, political system and past and ongoing contributions to UN activities especially to UN peacekeeping operations.
