

New Disability Certificate Rules

Source: IE

Recently, the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment of India introduced the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (Amendment) Rules, 2024.

- Changes in Certification Process:
 - Authority Requirement: Only a designated medical authority at the district level can issue disability certificates.
 - Colour-Coded UDID Cards: Color-coded Unique Disability Identity (UDID) cards— white, yellow, and blue—were introduced to indicate disability levels. Blue represents a disability level of 80% or higher.
 - Online-Only Applications: New norms make it mandatory to apply for the disability certificate online.
 - Extended Processing Time: The issuance period for disability certificates has been extended from one month to three months.
 - Reapplication Requirement: If no action is taken on a disability certificate application within two years, the applicant must reapply.
