For Mains: Mandates of Various Security Forces in India, Role of Security Forces in Security Border and Internal Security.

What is the Framework of the Security Forces in India?

The Indian security framework comprises the Indian Armed Forces, Central Armed Police Forces and the Strategic Force Command, all of which play a vital role in ensuring the nation's security.

- Law and Order Responsibility:
 - Law and order is primarily a state responsibility, with most policing functions managed by individual states and union territories.
 - Major cities have metropolitan police forces operating under their respective state governments.
- Federal Law Enforcement Oversight:
 - Most federal law enforcement agencies are regulated by the Ministry of Home Affairs, which coordinates internal security efforts.
- Mandates and Ministry Oversight:
 - External Security: This is primarily managed by the Ministry of Defence, in collaboration with the Ministry of Home Affairs.
 - Internal Security: The Ministry of Home Affairs oversees this aspect, with support from the Defence Ministry, addressing challenges such as insurgency, separatism, and civil unrest.
- Types of Security Forces:
 - Indian Armed Forces: Responsible for external security and national defense.
 - Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs): Also referred to as Paramilitary Forces, they focus on internal security, law enforcement, and border protection.
- Specialized Units:
 - The security framework includes dedicated Special Forces across various branches.
 - Specialized units for Anti-Terrorism, Urban Warfare, and VIP Protection are equipped to handle counter-terrorism operations and urban conflicts, ensuring security during high-risk situations and for vulnerable individuals.

What is the Organizational Structure of Indian Armed Forces?

- About Indian Armed Forces:
 - The Indian Armed Forces consist of:
 - Indian Army: Responsible for land-based operations.
 - Indian Navy: For protecting maritime interests.
 - Indian Air Force: For providing aerial defense.

- These uniformed services are supported by the Indian Coast Guard, paramilitary forces, and other organizations.
- The President of India is the supreme commander of the Indian Armed Forces.
- The Cabinet is responsible for national defense, which is carried out through the Ministry of Defence, providing the policy and resources for the Armed Forces to defend the country.
- The Government of India is responsible for defending India and its territories.
- Indian Army:
 - The Indian Army, or Bhartiya Thal Sena, is the land-based component of India's armed forces, tracing its origins to the armed forces of the East India Company.
 - It evolved into the British Indian Army and subsequently the Indian Army after independence.
 - Leadership: The Indian Army is commanded by the Chief of Army Staff \(COAS\).
 - Size and Ranking: It is recognized as the second-largest active army in the world.
 - Mission: The primary mission of the Indian Army is to ensure national security by defending India's sovereignty, territorial integrity, and harmony against external aggression and threats.
 - Humanitarian Role: In addition to its defense responsibilities, the Indian Army also provides humanitarian support and aid during natural disasters and emergencies.
- The Para Commandos are the most well-known of the Indian Army's special forces, undertaking operations behind enemy lines, anti-terrorist and counterinsurgency missions, as well as rescue operations during natural disasters.
- Indian Navy:
 - The Indian Navy is a well-balanced and cohesive three-dimensional force capable of operating above, on, and below the ocean surface, effectively safeguarding national interests.
 - Leadership: The Navy is commanded by the Chief of the Naval Staff \(CNS\) from the Integrated Headquarters of the Ministry of Defence (Navy), assisted by the Vice Chief of the Naval Staff (VCNS) and three Principal Staff Officers: the Deputy Chief of the Naval Staff (DCNS), the Chief of Personnel (COP), and the Chief of Material \(COM\).
 - Commands: The Navy has three primary commands:
 - Western Naval Command (Mumbai) - Operational Command for the Arabian Sea.
 - Eastern Naval Command (Visakhapatnam) - Operational Command for the Bay of Bengal.
 - Southern Naval Command (Kochi) - Training Command.
 - Fleets and Flotillas: The Navy's operational capability is enhanced by two main fleets: the Western Fleet based in Mumbai and the Eastern Fleet based in Visakhapatnam. There are also flotillas stationed in Mumbai, Visakhapatnam, and Port Blair for local naval defense.
 - Naval Presence: Naval ships are stationed along the east and west coasts and island territories, ensuring a sustained naval presence in critical areas.
 - Andaman & Nicobar Command: The defense of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands is a joint responsibility of all three armed services, coordinated by the Andaman & Nicobar Command in Port Blair, which is the only tri-service command in the Indian Armed Forces, led by a Commander-in-Chief appointed in rotation.
 - Lakshadweep Islands: Local naval defense of the Lakshadweep Islands is managed by the Naval Officer-in-Charge, Lakshadweep.
 - The Marine Commando Force \(MCF\), also known as MARCOS, is a Special Forces unit of the Indian Navy that specializes in anti-terrorism, anti-piracy, and other special operations.
- Indian Airforce:
 - The Indian Air Force was officially established on 8 October 1932 and is the 4th largest air force in the world after the US, Russia and China.
 - Its primary responsibility is to secure the Indian airspace and conduct aerial warfare during conflicts.

- It has participated in many United Nations \(UN\) peacekeeping missions.
- The Chief of Air Staff \(an Air Marshal\) is the commander of the air forces in India.
- The Garud Commando Force is the special forces unit of the Indian Air Force, engaged in airfield protection, suppression of enemy air defense, search and rescue, and humanitarian aid.

What is the Chief of Defence Staff (CDS)?

▪ About:

- The position of Chief of Defence Staff \(CDS\) was recommended in 2001 by a Group of Ministers (GoM) reviewing the Kargil Review Committee's report.
- To prepare for this role, the Integrated Defence Staff was established in 2002. The CDS post was officially created in 2019 following recommendations from a defense expert committee led by Lt General DB Shekatkar, with General Bipin Rawat serving as the first CDS from December 31, 2019.

▪ Roles and Responsibilities:

- The CDS primary role is to enhance operational synergy among the Army, Navy, and Air Force while minimizing inter-service frictions.
- He heads the Department of Military Affairs (DMA), acting as the principal military advisor to the Defence Minister.
- While service chiefs advise on their respective areas, the CDS prioritizes inter-service procurement and provides directives without command authority over the forces.

▪ Significance:

- Synergy: The CDS improves communication and cooperation between the Ministry of Defence and the Armed Forces, expediting decision-making.
- Joint Operations: As the permanent chairman of the Chiefs of Staff Committee (COSC), the CDS focuses on administering tri-service organizations, enhancing operational jointness.
- Theatre Command: The establishment of the DMA will facilitate joint/theater commands, with the CDS overseeing deployment across land, sea, and air.
- Nuclear Command: The CDS will play a key role in the Nuclear Command Authority \(NCA\) and oversee the Strategic Forces Command, enhancing India's nuclear deterrence.
- Resource Prioritization: The CDS will prioritize capital acquisition proposals amid shrinking defense budgets.

What are the Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs)?

▪ About:

- The Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs) are a group of seven armed police organizations that were formerly known as the Paramilitary Forces.

▪ Forces Under CAPFs:

- Assam Rifles \(AR\)
- Border Security Force \(BSF\)
- Central Industrial Security Force \(CISF\)
- Central Reserve Police Force \(CRPF\)
- Indo Tibetan Border Police \(ITBP\)
- National Security Guard \(NSG\)
- Sashastra Seema Bal \(SSB\)

▪ Administration:

- While these forces function under the administrative oversight of the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA), the operational control of the Assam Rifles lies with the Ministry of Defence (MoD).
- All CAPFs are led by officers of the rank of Director General of Police (DGP).

▪ Organization of CAPF:

◦ Border Guarding Forces:

- Assam Rifles (AR), Border Security Force (BSF), Indo-Tibetan Border Police (ITBP), and Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB) are designated as border guarding forces.

◦ Special Operations:

- National Security Guard (NSG) functions as a specialized commando unit for high-stakes operations.
- Special Protection Group (SPG) for providing proximate security to the Prime Minister (PM) and former PM and their immediate family members.

◦ Internal Security:

- Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) is responsible for securing industrial facilities and critical installations.
- Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) supports civil authorities in maintaining law and order, tackling internal security challenges, and engaging in counterinsurgency operations.

▪ Assam Rifles (AR):

◦ About:

- The Assam Rifles is one of the oldest Central Paramilitary Forces in India.
- It was established in 1835 as the 'Cachar Levy' to protect British tea estates from tribal raids.
- It played a pivotal role in opening the Assam region to administration and commerce, earning the designation of the "right arm of the civil and left arm of the military."

◦ Current Deployment:

- The force maintains two battalions in Jammu and Kashmir and has a National Disaster Relief Force \(NDRF\) battalion actively engaged in responding to natural calamities.
- Additionally, the inclusion of the Riflewomen Team of the Assam Rifles in UN peacekeeping missions reflects India's commitment to social and humanitarian efforts on the global stage.

◦ Major Post-Independence Roles:

- Engaged in conventional combat during the Sino-India War of 1962.
- Participated in international operations as part of the Indian Peace Keeping Force in Sri Lanka in 1987 (Operation Pawan).
- Played a peacekeeping role in the northeastern regions of India.

◦ Dual Control:

- Assam Rifles is the only paramilitary force with a dual control structure, where the administrative control is with the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) and the operational control is with the Indian Army under the Ministry of Defence (MoD).

▪ Border Security Force (BSF)

- About:

- The Border Security Force (BSF) is a paramilitary force established in India in 1965 primarily for guarding the country's land borders and maintaining peace and security in border areas.

- Responsibilities:
