Why in News

Recently, Saudi Arabia became the first Arab nation to take over the G20

Presidency on December 1, 2019. //

- It has taken over from Japan and it will host the G20 Summit in its capital, Riyadh on November 21 and 22, 2020.
- The theme of Summit- "Realising Opportunities of the 21st Century for All".
- The three key aims of the G20 Presidency, 2020 are:
 - Empowering People by creating the conditions in which all people mainly women and youth can live, work and thrive.
 - Safeguarding the Planet by fostering collective efforts to protect our global commonpool resources.
 - Shaping New Frontiers by adopting long-term and bold strategies to share the benefits

Challenges

- As the presiding nation, Saudi Arabia has to work towards mitigating global risks like climate change, demographic issues, such as low birth rates, rising life expectancy and aging societies which requires coordinated efforts at global level. However, rising populism and nationalism may prevent the progress at the multilateral level.
- It has promoted a liberalisation drive, including granting greater rights to women. However, incidents like the murder of journalist Jamal Khashoggi drew intense global criticism over human rights issues in Saudi Arabia.
- Therefore, G20 member states should exert pressure on the Saudi Arabia for its authoritative policies and hold it accountable for its human rights obligations.
