

Indian Army Eyes Upgraded 'Pup Tents' for Icy Heights Along LAC

Army Plans insulated 'Pup Tents' for Troops on Icy Line of Actual Control \(LAC\) Heights at -50°C .

- The pup tents are meant for soldiers deployed in extreme cold weather conditions, such as in eastern Ladakh, Sikkim and Siachen glacier.
- The Line of Actual Control (LAC) is the border that divides the territories of India and Aksai Chin (China occupied Indian Territory).
 - It is divided into three sectors: the eastern sector which spans Arunachal Pradesh and Sikkim (1346 km), the middle sector in Uttarakhand and Himachal Pradesh (545 km), and the western sector in Ladakh (1597 km).

Read More: India-China Conflict

