

NIA to Probe Human-Trafficking Syndicate | Uttar Pradesh | 30 Nov 2024

Why in News?

Recently, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) carried out searches across 22 locations in six states as part of an investigation into a human-trafficking syndicate that entices youth to work in call centers involved in cyber fraud.

Key Points

- The searches were conducted in Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, Delhi, and other regions.
 - It originates from a police report filed in Gopalganj, Bihar which involves an organized syndicate that lures and traffics Indian youth to foreign countries under the pretense of providing jobs.
- Trafficked individuals were coerced into working in fake call centers. These call centers were involved in conducting cyber fraud operations.
- Human Trafficking:
 - It refers to the illegal trade and exploitation of people, typically for the purposes of forced labour, sexual exploitation, or involuntary servitude.
 - It involves the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring, or receipt of individuals through threat, force, coercion, abduction, fraud, or deception for the purpose of exploiting them.
