Why in News?

Recently, the Supreme Court of India \(SC\) has directed Ministry of Women and Child Development (MoWCD) of all states/UTs to appoint district officers under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace \(Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal\) Act, 2013 \(POSH Act\) to ensure the effective implementation of the law.

What are the Supreme Court's Directives to States ?

- Need for SC's Direction:
  - The Supreme Court realised that women found protection under a law against sexual harassment in workplaces beyond their reach for the simple reason that there was no one to go to with their complaints.
  - The court found that many states had not bothered to notify District Officers under the POSH Act all these years. Therefore, it directed all states to immediately appoint district officers under the POSH Act.
- Role of District Officers Under the POSH Act:
  - The POSH Act mandates states to appoint an officer in every district who would play a "pivotal" role in the implementation of the Act.
  - The District Officer would constitute Local Complaints Committees \(LCCs\) to receive complaints from women employed in small establishments with less than 10 workers or cases in which the assailant is the employer himself.
  - A District Officer's responsibilities also included appointing nodal officers under the Act in rural, tribal and urban areas.
- Appointment of Nodal Persons:
  - SC directed that the MoWCD of every State/UT through its Principal Secretary, should consider identifying a 'nodal person' within the Department, to oversee and aid in coordination as contemplated under the POSH Act.
    - This person would also be able to coordinate with the Union Government on matters relating to this Act and its implementation.
- Deadline of Report Submission:
  - Further, each State/UT Government is to submit a consolidated report of its compliance with the below directions to the Union Government within 8 weeks.

What is the PoSH Act, 2013?

- About:
  - The POSH Act is a legislation enacted by the Government of India in 2013 to address the issue of sexual harassment faced by women in the workplace.
    - The Act aims to create a safe and conducive work environment for women and provide protection against sexual harassment.
  - The PoSH Act defines sexual harassment to include unwelcome acts such as physical contact and sexual advances, a demand or request for sexual favours, making sexually coloured remarks, showing pornography, and any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.
- Background:
  - The Supreme Court in a landmark judgment in the Vishakha and others v State of Rajasthan 1997 case gave 'Vishakha guidelines'.
  - These guidelines formed the basis for the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013.
  - The SC also drew its strength from several provisions of the Constitution including Article 15 (against discrimination on grounds only of religion, race, caste, sex, and place of birth), also drawing from relevant International Conventions and norms such as the General Recommendations of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women \(CEDAW\), which India ratified in 1993.
- Key Provisions:
  - Prevention and Prohibition: The Act places a legal obligation on employers to prevent and prohibit sexual harassment in the workplace.
  - Internal Complaints Committee (ICC): Employers are required to constitute an ICC at each workplace with 10 or more employees to receive and address complaints of sexual harassment.
    - The Complaints Committees have the powers of civil courts for gathering evidence.
  - Duties of Employers: Employers must undertake awareness programs, provide a safe working environment, and display information about the POSH Act at the workplace.
  - Penalties: Non-compliance with the Act's provisions can result in penalties, including fines and cancellation of business licenses.

What Can Be the Way Forward?

- Employment Tribunal: Setting up of an employment tribunal instead of an internal complaints committee (ICC) in the Sexual Harassment at the Workplace Act should be followed.
- Power to Form Own Procedure: To ensure speedy disposal of complaints, it is proposed that the tribunal should not function as a civil court but may choose its own procedure to deal with each complaint.
- Expanding Scope of Act: Domestic workers should be included within the purview of the Act.
  - The Justice Verma Committee said any "unwelcome behavior" should be seen from the subjective perception of the complainant, thus broadening the scope of the definition of sexual harassment.
- Responsibility of Employer: The Justice Verma Committee said an employer should be held liable if:
  - he or she facilitated sexual harassment.
  - permitted an environment where sexual misconduct becomes widespread and systematic.
  - Where the employer fails to disclose the company's policy on sexual harassment and ways in which workers can file a complaint.
  - The Verma panel also said that the time-limit of three months to file a complaint should be done away with and a complainant should not be transferred without her consent.
