

Increase of Female Labour Force Participation Rate | Haryana | 13 Dec 2024

Why in News?

 Recently, the Economic Advisory Council to the Prime Minister (EAC-PM) reported that the female labour force participation rate (LFPR) increased in almost all states in India between 2017-18 and 2022-23, with rural areas experiencing larger gains than urban areas.

Key Points

- Key Findings on Female LFPR:
 - Regional Variations:
 - Bihar, Punjab, and Haryana consistently reported very low female LFPR.
 - Despite being among the richest states, Punjab and Haryana have low female LFPR, while Bihar, the poorest state, also lags.
 - o Growth:
 - In Rural areas Female LFPR rose to 41.5% from 24.6% during 2017-18 to 2022-23.
 - In Urban areas Female LFPR increased to 25.4% from 20.4% during the same period.
 - Overall Trend is that growth remained consistent even after excluding unpaid family workers or household helpers.
- Other Trends:
 - Marital Status:
 - Married men exhibit higher LFPR across states and age groups.
 - Marriage significantly reduces female LFPR, especially in urban areas.
 - Age Dynamics:
 - Female LFPR forms a bell curve, peaking at ages 30-40 and declining sharply after.
 - Male LFPR remains nearly 100% between ages 30-50 and declines gradually thereafter.
 - State-wise Observations:
 - Northern States: Punjab and Haryana recorded low female LFPR.
 - Eastern States: Rural Bihar had the lowest LFPR but showed improvement, particularly among married women.
 - Northeastern States: Rural areas showed progress, with Nagaland and Arunachal Pradesh leading.
- Impact of Government Schemes:
 - Mudra Loans
 - Drone Didi Scheme
 - Deendayal Antyodaya Yojana
 - These schemes emphasize women-led development, reflecting the government's intention to promote female participation in the workforce.
- The rise in female LFPR, especially in rural areas, underscores a notable shift in employment trends. Further analysis and government support will be essential to sustain and amplify this growth.
