

Exercise Poorvi Leher

Source: PIB

Recently, the Indian Navy conducted a Military Exercise named "Poorvi Lehar" on the Eastern Coast of India.

- The exercise aimed to assess the Indian Navy's preparedness to meet Maritime Security challenges in the region.
- Ships, submarines, aircraft and special forces from Indian Air Force (IAF), Andaman & Nicobar Command and Coast Guard participated in the exercise, indicating a very high degree of interoperability amongst the Services.
- The exercise was conducted in multiple phases:
  - Tactical phase: Combat training in a realistic scenario, and
  - Weapon phase by conducting various firings successfully.
- A continuous maritime domain awareness was maintained throughout the Area of operations by operating aircrafts from diverse locations.
- It reaffirmed the Indian Navy's capability to deliver ordnance on target.
