Recently, the 1st Bodoland Mohotsov was organised on the 15th and 16th November in New Delhi.

- Theme: Peace and Harmony for Prosperous Bharat.
- Objective: Focus areas include the rich culture, language, education, and heritage of the Bodo community and other communities from the Bodoland Territorial Region (BTR).
- Historical Significance: It celebrated the recovery of the region post the Bodo Peace Accord (2020) which resolved decades of conflict and violence.
- About Bodos: Bodos are the largest community among Assam's notified Scheduled Tribes, making up about 5-6% of the state's population.
 - In the late 1980s, the Bodos initiated a mass movement demanding a separate state for the Bodos.
- About BTR: Bodoland Territorial Region is an autonomous region in Assam consisting of four districts namely Kokrajhar, Chirang, Baksa and Udalguri.
 - It is administered by an elected body known as the Bodoland Territorial Council.
