

Reactivation of Anti-Romeo Squads in Uttar Pradesh

Why in News?

Recently, Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath instructed the reactivation of the Anti-Romeo Squad teams.

Key Points

- The Chief Minister emphasized the need for a fear-free environment and prioritized women's safety, directing district-level officers to ensure public hearings and communication.
- Anti-Romeo Squad:
 - They were meant to curb eve-teasing and provide greater security to women.
 - It aims to take action against boys found outside girls' colleges involved in eveteasing and molesting girl students.
 - But couples were stopped just for being spotted together, though the squad had no legal jurisdiction to stop them.
