

NIA Conducts Raids to Investigate Militant Infiltration

Why in News?

The National Investigation Agency (NIA) conducted searches at multiple locations across five districts of Jammu and Kashmir. These searches were linked to a case involving terrorist infiltration from across the border and recent attacks on security forces and civilians.

Key Points

Background:

 The NIA registered a case based on information about the infiltration of active terrorists belonging to Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) and Jaish-e-Muhammad (JeM) into Indian territory through the International Border (IB) and Line of Control (LoC).

• NIA Searches:

- Locations:
 - NIA teams conducted extensive searches at eight locations across the districts of Reasi, Udhampur, Doda, Ramban, and Kishtwar in Jammu and Kashmir.
- Outcomes:
 - The searches resulted in the seizure of materials linking banned terrorist outfits to overground workers (OGWs) and hybrid terrorists.
 - The premises of sympathisers and cadres of banned organisations were also searched as part of the operation.
- Link to Banned Outfits:
 - The suspected hybrid terrorists and OGWs were associated with new offshoots and affiliates of banned terrorist outfits such as LeT and JeM.
