

Haryana Centre of Excellence | Haryana | 04 Jan 2025

Why in News?

Recently, the Haryana government has decided to set up a Centre for Urban Excellence (CUE) for regulated urban development.

Key Points

- Nodal Agency and Objective:
 - The Department of Town and Country Planning (DTCP) serves as the nodal agency for planned development in Haryana.
 - The CUE aims to partner with a reputed institution to build cutting-edge knowledge, capacities, and implementation models.
 - It also aims to foster innovation, facilitate stakeholder discourse, and enhance Haryana's urban livability index to international standards within a decade.
- Urban Growth in Haryana:
 - Haryana's urbanization level (35%) surpasses the national average (31%) as per the 2011 census.
 - The state's urban population growth rate (44.25%) is higher than the national rate (32%).
 - Rapid urbanization has highlighted the need for a policy advocacy body like the CUE to address urban development challenges.
- Mission and Focus Areas:
 - The CUE's mission is to strengthen state agencies' capacities for systematic urban innovation and governance.
 - It will focus on:
 - Environmental sustainability.
 - Technology adoption.
 - Resource conservation.
 - A people-first approach.
 - Shaping policies and practices for balanced growth and development.
 - Activities include research, strategic advisory, technical support, training, and capacity building.
