

RBI Enhances Collateral-Free Loan for Farmers

Source: BS

The Reserve Bank of India \(RBI\) has increased the collateral-free loan limit for farmers from Rs 1.6 lakh to Rs 2 lakh to support small and marginal farmers amidst rising input costs.

Key Highlights:

- Beneficiaries: Over 86% of farmers, primarily small and marginal landholders, are expected to benefit.
- Extended Coverage: Includes loans for allied agricultural activities, enabling income diversification.
 - Banks have been directed to ensure prompt implementation and raise awareness about the provision.
- Complementary Schemes: The measure will ease access to Kisan Credit Card \(KCC\) loans and align with the Modified Interest Subvention Scheme, offering loans up to Rs 3 lakh at an effective interest rate of 4%.
 - This initiative enhances financial inclusion in agriculture, enabling farmers to manage input costs effectively, invest in operations, and improve livelihoods.
