What is Honour Killing?

 - The concept of honor is often tied to women's behavior regarding issues like marriage, relationships, sexuality, and modesty.
- Key Statistics: As per the National Crime Records Bureau data \(NCRB\), the number of honour killings reported in India was 25 each in 2019 and 2020, and 33 in 2021. But these figures could be much higher than mentioned.
- Causes:

 - Patriarchal Norms: Women's right to choose a partner is often denied, with marriage seen as a family honour transaction.
 - Caste Panchayats: These informal bodies, controlled by dominant caste males, impose punishments, including killings, for violating caste norms. E.g., Khap Panchayats.
 - Gender Imbalance: Skewed sex ratios lead to violence against women, especially when marriage choices defy traditional norms.
 - Social Status: Ascribed social status is prioritized over personal achievements, causing family honour to override personal choice.
- Consequences:

 - Social Impact: Surviving families and communities suffer deep psychological trauma and long-term mental health issues.
 - Governance Challenges: Weak legal frameworks or societal acceptance result in perpetrators evading justice, undermining the rule of law.
 - Cultural Backwardness: It prevents women's education and employment, reinforcing regressive traditions and hindering progress.

- International Repercussions: Honor-based violence draws global human rights scrutiny, impacting diplomatic relations.

Note: Honour killings are considered "murders" since the law does not handle them expressly. As such, they are subject to the provisions of Indian Penal Code, 1860.

- Entitled "Prohibition of Unlawful Assembly (Interference with the Freedom of Matrimonial Alliances) Bill, 2011" the bill dealt primarily with the "unlawful assemblies called by caste panchayats to prevent a self-choice.
 - Despite initial support, the bill failed to progress in Parliament and was not enacted into law.
- The Law Commission of India's 242nd Report (2012) emphasised the need for anti-honor killing laws that would provide clear guidelines for investigation, prosecution, and punishment in such cases.

What are Legal Provisions to Check Honour Killing?

Way Forward

- New Legislation: A dedicated anti honour killing law is needed to provide targeted protection, ensure accountability, standardize legal procedures, align with international human rights standards, and promote societal change.
- Electoral Disqualification: Convicts of honour killings should be barred from elections for at least five years, sending a strong message that such individuals should not hold power, thereby reducing the practice's social legitimacy.
 - It will check caste-community based panchayats and prevent justification of such honour killing orders and acts.
- Fast Track Courts: Specialized fast-track courts for honour killings should be set up to
