

Australia Opens Armed Forces to Non-Citizens

Source: TH

Australia will allow non-citizen permanent residents who have been living in Australia for at least 12 months to join the Australian armed forces starting in July 2024.

- This is due to Australia struggling to meet recruitment targets for its military.
- Citizens from the Five Eyes countries will be favoured to join.
 - The Five Eyes is an intelligence alliance comprising Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom and the US.
 - These countries are parties to the multilateral UK-USA Agreement.
- Australia is bolstering its military by ramping up recruitment in response to a perceived growing threat from China and a current defence personnel count of around 90,000.
