

Unauthorized Railway E-ticket Declared Illegal

Source: TH

In the Mathew K Cherian Case, 2025, the Supreme Court held that unauthorised business of procuring and supplying railway e-tickets is a social crime which must be stopped.

- Section 143 of the Railways Act, 1989 addresses penalties for the unauthorized sale and procurement of railway tickets, both online and offline.
- The case referenced the English case of Comdel Commodities Ltd. v. Siporex Trade SA Case, 1990 to argue that legal provisions can extend to unforeseen technological advancements.
  - The Kerala High Court had previously ruled that the provision applied only to offline ticket sales but was corrected by the Supreme Court.
- Mathew, the accused, created hundreds of unauthorized user IDs to circumvent ticketing limits set by IRCTC (12-24 ticket reservations per month), violating Section 143 of the Act.
- The Indian Railways is a keystone of India's infrastructure that carries around 673 crore passengers annually.

Read More: Rerouting Indian Railways' Future

PDF Reference URL: <https://www.drishtias.com/printpdf/unauthorized-railway-e-ticket-declared-illegal>