One Nation-One Election (ONOE)

- About:
 - The concept talks about a scenario where all State elections will take place simultaneously with the general elections of Lok Sabha, once every five years.
 - The idea is to streamline the electoral process and reduce the frequency of elections, thus saving time and resources.
- Background:
 - The idea has been around since 1983, when the Election Commission first mooted it. However, until 1967, simultaneous elections were the norm in India.
 - The first General Elections to the House of People (Lok Sabha) and all State Legislative Assemblies were held simultaneously in 1951-52.
 - That practice continued in three subsequent General Elections held in the years 1957, 1962 and 1967.
 - However, due to the premature dissolution of some Legislative Assemblies in 1968 and 1969, the cycle got disrupted.
 - In 1970, the Lok Sabha was itself dissolved prematurely and fresh elections were held in 1971. Thus, till 1970, only the First, Second and Third Lok Sabha enjoyed full five-year terms.
