

EU & Indo-Pacific

Why in News

Recently, the European Union \(EU\) approved conclusions on a European Union strategy for cooperation in the Indo-Pacific.

- The renewed EU commitment to the Indo-Pacific will have a long-term focus and will be based on upholding democracy, human rights, the rule of law and respect for international law.
- Indo-Pacific is a region spanning from the east coast of Africa to the Pacific island states.

//

Key Points

- Need:
 - Intense geopolitical competition adding to increasing tensions on trade and supply chains as well as in technological, political and security areas.
 - Human rights are also being challenged. These developments increasingly threaten the stability and security of the region and beyond, directly impacting on the EU's interests.
- Aim:
 - To contribute to regional stability, security, prosperity and sustainable development at a time of rising challenges and tensions in the region.

- Promoting rules-based multilateralism, giving centrality to ASEAN \(Association of SouthEast Asian Nations\), a point also stressed by India.
- Main Features of the Strategy:
 - Covid-19:
 - The EU will work together in order to mitigate the economic and human effects of the Covid-19 pandemic and work towards ensuring an inclusive and sustainable socio-economic recovery.
 - Free and Fair Trade:
 - The EU's approach and engagement will look to foster a "rules-based international order, a level playing field, as well as an open and fair environment for trade and investment, reciprocity, the strengthening of resilience, tackling climate change and supporting connectivity with the EU.
 - On trade partnerships, the EU will aim to conclude free trade agreements with Australia, Indonesia and New Zealand and take further steps towards the Comprehensive Agreement on Investment with China.
 - It will also continue to explore deepening economic relations with India.
 - Security and Defence:
 - It will continue to develop partnerships in the areas of security and defence, including to address maritime security, malicious cyber activities, disinformation, emerging technologies, terrorism, and organised crime.
 - It has taken the decision to extend the geographic scope of its CRIMARIO (Critical Maritime Routes) II activities from the Indian Ocean into South and Southeast Asia with a view to contribute to safer sea lanes of communication with the EU.
 - CRIMARIO:
 - The EU Critical Maritime Route Wider Indian Ocean (CRIMARIO) project was launched in 2015 to improve maritime security and safety in the Wider Indian Ocean, with a particular focus on selected countries and archipelagos in East Africa, it aims to support countries in the region to enhance their Maritime Situational Awareness (MSA).
- Role for India:
 - Increasing competition, power rivalry, unilateral actions challenging the multilateral order and international laws are some of the common concerns shared by India and Europe.
 - With an enhanced focus on their strategic relations and engagement with other like-minded regional players, India and EU can play a significant role in preserving an open, free, inclusive and rules based order in the Indo-pacific.
 - India's recent engagement with European powers in Indo-Pacific:
 - India's support for France's membership of the Indian Ocean Rim Association \(IORA\).
 - India's backing for a larger European role in the Indo-Pacific. India has welcomed the interest of Germany and Netherlands in building a new geopolitical architecture in the Indo-Pacific.
 - Some of the crucial areas that India and EU can work together include joint efforts in capacity building against challenges like piracy, counter-terrorism etc and cooperation in enhancing interoperability and domain awareness, blue economy etc.

Way Forward

- There is a growing realisation of the need for a larger European role in the region, as the European strategic community has begun to acknowledge that strategic and economic interests of Europe are intrinsically linked to the Indo-Pacific region.

- Increasing convergence of interests and shared values offer scope for deepening India-EU cooperation in the region to secure global commons, maintain stability and support economic prosperity in a cooperative manner and together shape a stable multipolar order.
