

Ropeway Project to Vaishno Devi Shrine

Why in News?

Recently, a shutdown was observed in Katra to oppose a ropeway that will connect Tarakote Marg to Sanji Chhat, along the 12-kilometre steep track of the Vaishno Devi shrine, in the Jammu region.

Key Points

- Protest Against Ropeway Project:
 - The Vaishno Devi Trek Mazdoor Union, voiced opposition to the ropeway project, stating it threatens the livelihood of over 60,000 families, including hoteliers, shopkeepers, pony operators, laborers, and transporters.
 - The Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Sangharsh Samiti called for a shutdown in Katra, which disrupted business in the local market.
 - Withdrawal of Shutdown Call:
 - The Samiti withdrew the shutdown after receiving fresh assurances from local authorities.
 - The Deputy Commissioner requested five days to analyze their demands, according to Samiti members.
- Shrine Board Meeting Chaired by Lieutenant Governor:
 - J&K Lieutenant Governor chaired the 73rd Meeting of the Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine Board at Raj Bhawan.
 - The Lieutenant Governor inaugurated new pilgrim-centric facilities and laid the foundation stone for a new exit track aimed at decongesting the Bhawan area.
- Board's Decisions and Future Plans:
 - The Shrine Board conducted a comprehensive review of its previous decisions but did not issue a specific statement on the ongoing protests in Katra.
 - The Lieutenant Governor emphasized improving transparency and efficiency to enhance the pilgrim experience.
- MoU to Address Landslides:
 - The Board approved a tripartite Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the Geological Survey of India (GSI) and THDC India Limited (THDCIL).
 - The MoU aims to identify and treat slopes vulnerable to landslides and rockfalls along the Yatra route between Adhkuwari and Bhawan.
